

Three Rivers Tibetan Cultural Center

His Eminence Tritsab Rinpoche Pittsburgh Teaching Information

Saturday and Sunday, June 10-11, 2017

SATURDAY, June 10th

10AM - 12PM

Teaching on Loving Kindness and Compassion

3PM - 6PM

Empowerment of Chenrezig, the Buddha of Compassion

LOCATION: Sixth Presbyterian Church
1688 Murray Avenue
Pittsburgh, PA 15217

SUNDAY, June 11th,

10AM - 12PM

Empowerment of the Great Dharma Protectress of the Drikung Kagyu lineage, Achi Chokyi Dorlma

2PM - 5PM

Teaching and Practice of the Great Dharma Protectress Achi Chokyi Dorlma

LOCATION: Three Rivers Tibetan Cultural Center
7313 Florence Avenue,
Pittsburgh PA 15218

His Eminence Tritsab Rinpoche was born in 1981 in a Tibetan exile camp in Shimla, northern India. “Rinpoche” means “the Precious One” in Tibetan and is one of the highest titles used for addressing the highest lamas in the Vajrayana Buddhism tradition, and “Tritsab” means “Regent” in Tibetan. At an early age, Tritsab Rinpoche was recognized as the reincarnation of a great master in the Drikung Kagyu lineage, Gyara Tritsab Thubten Wangpo (1921-1979) who was the guiding teacher transmitting dharma teachings to the two present lineage throne holders, H.H.Drikung Kyabgon Chetsang Rinpoche and H.H. Drikung Kyabgon Chungtsang Rinpoche, when they were young. Rinpoche is currently the head of Rinchen Ling Monastery in Kathmandu, Nepal. In 2007 Rinpoche established the Kedah Drikung Kagyu Kharma Center in Malaysia, and has travelled to Singapore, Taiwan, Malaysia, USA, and some European countries to give teachings and empowerments to dharma practitioners.

ALL ARE WELCOME

Suggested donation is $40 for each day and $70 for both days.

Give in ways that's meaningful. No one is turned away from the teaching for lack of funds

www.threeriverstibetancc.org www.threeriversdharma.org

Email: threeriversdharma@gmail.com