

Three Rivers Tibetan Cultural Center

His Eminence Tritsab Rinpoche Pittsburgh Teaching Information

Friday and Saturday, June 15-16, 2018

FRIDAY, June 15th

7pm - 9pm

PHOWA Transmission and Teaching

Phowa in the Vajrayana Buddhism practice is a method of training to face death fearlessly and compassionately for oneself and others and transfer one's consciousness into a pure and peaceful realm of Buddha field.

SATURDAY, June 16th,

10AM - 5PM

BASUDHARA Empowerment and Teaching

H.E. Tritsab Rinpoche will bestow the empowerment and blessings of the female enlightened being Basudhara, also known by the name Lhamo Norgyunma, or Vasudhara, the goddess of wealth. Basudhara is the embodiment of prosperity, wealth, good fortunes and abundance of resources.

LOCATION: SIXTH PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

1688 Murray Avenue

Pittsburgh, PA 15217

His Eminence Tritsab Rinpoche was born in 1981 in a Tibetan exile camp in Shimla, northern India. "Rinpoche" means "the Precious One" in Tibetan and is one of the highest titles used for addressing the highest lamas in the Vajrayana Buddhism tradition, and "Tritsab" means "Regent" in Tibetan. At an early age, Tritsab Rinpoche was recognized as the reincarnation of a great master in the Drikung Kagyu lineage, Gyara Tritsab Thubten Wangpo (1921-1979) who was the guiding teacher transmitting dharma teachings to the two present lineage throne holders, H.H. Drikung Kyabgon Chetsang Rinpoche and H.H. Drikung Kyabgon Chungtsang Rinpoche, when they were young. Rinpoche is currently the head of Rinchen Ling Monastery in Kathmandu, Nepal. In 2007 Rinpoche established the Kedah Drikung Kagyu Kharma Center in Malaysia, and has travelled to Singapore, Taiwan, Malaysia, USA, and some European countries to give teachings and empowerments to dharma practitioners.

ALL ARE WELCOME

Suggested donation: $20 for each session, $50 for both Friday and Saturday Give in ways that's meaningful to you. No one is turned away for lack of funds

www.threeriverstibetanc.org

www.threeriversdharma.org