TRTCC Teacher Venerable Lama Kalsang The Buddha Amitabha Jang Chog Ritual

Saturday, May 18, 2019 10:00am - 5:00pm

The Amitabha Jang Chog puja/ritual is a Vajrayana practice performed to purify the negative karma of the deceased, who passed away recently or in the distant past, to help them relinquish their clinging to the impermanent human world, and to create the causes and conditions for their liberation from samsaric rebirths, furthering their peaceful journey to the Pure Land of Buddha Amitabha.

The puja also benefits the living friends or relatives of the deceased through the ritual blessings and accumulation of prayers, chanting, meditation and offering of food and merits, on behalf of the deceased, purifying negativity, resolving karmic debts, which may be manifesting as obstacles in life.

Ven. Lama Kalsang first came to Pittsburgh in November 2017.

He was ordained by H.E. Nubpa Rinpoche and the late Ven. Drubwang Rinpoche in 1992. Studied under many Tibetan Buddhism masters, and trained in the ritual practices at Drikung Kagyu Jangchub Ling in India, he served for many years as a chant master, disciplinarian, and treasurer at Drikung Kagyu Rinchen Ling before coming to Three Rivers Tibetan Cultural Center as our resident teacher.
